A Conscious World Begins with Conscious People

USM Couples Workshop
The Heart and Art of Relationship

May 30 – June 1, 2014 | USM, Los Angeles

Come for a weekend. Renew and deepen your love for a lifetime.
Drs. Ron & Mary Hulnick
Drs. Ron and Mary Hulnick, President and Chief Educational Officer, respectively, of the University of Santa Monica are the designers of the USM Couples Workshop. In addition, Ron and Mary are licensed Marriage and Family Therapists, and Mary is also a licensed Psychologist. They are respected and known worldwide for their ability to create a learning environment that is safe, supportive, and where positive change and growth can take place. Ron and Mary celebrated 35 years of marriage on January 14, 2014.

"Perhaps you think of relationship as a place where you have your perceived needs met, and when that happens, less-than-desired trouble begins. But what if you perceive relationship as an opportunity for fulfilling your greatest need—the need to grow in the awareness of yourself as, first and foremost, a Caring and Loving person? Mary and I love working with couples to develop that level of awareness and the skills necessary to nurture that context."

—H. Ronald Hulnick, Ph.D., President

"An authentically Loving relationship begins with an Open Heart. One of the most powerful communications I share with Ron is a practice we’ve been doing since before we were married: I open the eyes of my Heart, take him by the hands, look deeply into his eyes, and speaking from my heart say, “Darling, I’m here for you. I Love You, I Hear You, and I’m here for you.”"

—Mary R. Hulnick, Ph.D., Chief Educational Officer

Ever wonder what makes for a fulfilling relationship? This weekend Workshop is designed for committed couples who love each other and have the intention to nourish themselves and their relationship through even more fully opening their hearts and experiencing deeper levels of Loving, Joy, Communion, and Fulfillment.
